Calamity (Reckoners #3) I'VE witnessed the fearsome depths. I was in Babilar, Babylon Restored. Formerly New York City. I stared into the burning red star known as Calamity, and knew—with no uncertainty—that something inside me had changed. The depths had claimed me as one of their own. And though I've pushed them back, I still bear their hidden scar.

Calamity (Reckoners #3) (2) I watched Abraham nervously through my scope—pulling the aim point to the right so an accidental discharge wouldn't hit him—to make sure no drones spotted him. They didn't. He used a retractable line to get to the top of the short wall, then another to reach the castle's roof. He hid beside one of the crenellations while he prepared his next step.
